The ICAEW Annual Pensions Conference 2009

Wednesday 11 November

The pensions sector is operating in a climate of uncertainty as pension fund deficits and continual regulatory changes place greater demands on accountants working in or advising on pensions matters.

This key annual conference will look at the challenges of investment, internal controls and audit assurance facing the industry today. Ensure you are on top of the latest challenges facing the pensions sector.

What are the benefits of attending?

Delegates will be up to date with current practice and thinking during a prolonged period of economic instability affecting the financial markets.

Who should attend?

All auditors and accountants involved in pensions accounting, auditing and administration.
